1st August 1921.

My dear Mr. Venkatakrishnayya,

I was very pleased to receive your letter of the 27th July, and I hope you will faithfully keep your promise and prevent anything of an objectionable nature appearing in your paper hereafter.

I shall be very glad to see you at the usual hour in my house here or at the office between 3 and 5 on any office day. We shall be returning to Mysore, I expect, by the middle of this month. I dare say it will be more convenient to you to see me there than here, but so far as I am concerned both will be equally convenient.

Yours sincerely,
